DOH: PH tops in prevalence of leprosy in W Pacific

By Joseph B. Orr

AT RISK OF BEING MISSED BY THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION (WHO) in its annual global leprosy survey, the Philippines topped the list in prevalence of the disease in the Western Pacific region, according to a report from the Department of Health (DOH) on Tuesday.

The Philippines has the highest number of leprosy cases in the region, with 1,100 cases reported in 2010, according to the WHO. The Philippines is followed by Indonesia with 800 cases, and then Vietnam with 600 cases.

- These findings suggest that the use of a single, standardized, and validated instrument to assess the prevalence of mental health problems in a community is feasible. The use of a single instrument may be useful in future research to compare the prevalence of mental health problems across different communities and countries.

Corona has a legal obligation to reveal his dollar accounts, says Carpio. The Department of Justice (DOJ) has filed a complaint with the Sandiganbayan, the Philippines' anti-graft court, against Corona for allegedly failing to disclose his foreign assets. The complaint was filed on February 14, 2017. Corona, who is currently a member of the House of Representatives, has been accused of various financial irregularities. The DOJ is seeking to ensure that Corona complies with the country's transparency laws regarding the disclosure of assets and liabilities. The case is part of a broader effort by the Philippine government to combat corruption and promote accountability among its officials.

OPINION

Ostracism

Love is a powerful force that can bring people together and create a sense of community. It is the foundation of all human relationships and the key to a peaceful and harmonious society. In the Philippines, love is not just a feeling; it is a way of life. It is the spirit that drives us to help those in need, to stand up for the oppressed, and to work for a better future for all.

Love is the glue that holds us together. It is the force that makes us care for one another, that makes us willing to sacrifice for the good of others. It is the power that can overcome fear, hatred, and violence. In a world where conflict and division are so prevalent, love is the most powerful weapon we have.

Let us embrace love in all our actions and interactions. Let us be loving and caring to one another, and let us work together to build a more just and peaceful Philippines. For only through love can we truly achieve our dreams and aspirations.

Pacquiao lighter on fight night

By Greg Castillo
 MANILA, Philippines — Manny Pacquiao's performance on Saturday night was a testament to his enduring power and speed. The 34-year-old fighter, who has won 10 world titles, dominated his opponent, Keith Thurman, from the opening bell. Pacquiao landed a series of powerful punches, including a devastating right hand that knocked Thurman down in the fourth round. The fight was a display of Pacquiao's exceptional boxing skills and his ability to adapt to different opponents.

Son of slain solon's ex-lover asks FBI to conduct probe

By Associated Press
 and Staff Writers

The son of a slain police officer's ex-girlfriend has asked the FBI to conduct a probe into the death of his father, a police officer who was shot and killed last year.

The son, who is now a police officer himself, said he was told by his father's ex-girlfriend that she had been involved in a relationship with a man who was involved in the shooting.

The son said he was told that the man was involved in a relationship with a woman who was involved in a relationship with a man who was involved in the shooting.

First Gen eyes 2 Balangas plants

Gets clearance to conduct grid impact study

By Amy S. Reyes

First Gen Corp. has secured clearance from the National Grid Corporation of the Philippines (NGCP) to conduct a grid impact study for two proposed power plants in Balangas, Batangas.

The NGCP has approved the study, which is a prerequisite for the issuance of a Certificate of Environmental Compliance (CEC) for the plants. The study will assess the impact of the plants on the local power grid and the environment.

The two proposed plants are the Balangas Coal-Fired Power Plant and the Balangas Gas-Fired Power Plant. Both plants are expected to have a capacity of 1,000 megawatts (MW).

First Gen is currently in the process of securing the necessary permits and approvals for the plants. The company is also conducting a feasibility study for the plants.

The Balangas area is a major industrial and commercial hub in Batangas. The proposed plants are expected to provide a steady supply of electricity to the area.

First Gen is committed to sustainable development and is working to minimize the impact of the plants on the environment. The company is also working to improve the local power grid and to provide better service to its customers.

Will the market keep up?

The market for power plants is expected to remain strong in the coming years, according to industry analysts. The demand for electricity is growing rapidly, and new power plants are needed to meet this demand.

However, there are some challenges that could slow down the market. One challenge is the high cost of building new power plants. Another challenge is the environmental impact of some types of power plants.

Despite these challenges, the market for power plants is expected to remain strong. The demand for electricity is growing, and new power plants are needed to meet this demand.

Industry analysts predict that the market for power plants will continue to grow in the coming years. This growth is driven by the increasing demand for electricity and the need for new power plants to meet this demand.

However, there are some risks that could affect the market. One risk is the possibility of a recession, which could lead to a decrease in demand for electricity. Another risk is the possibility of new regulations that could make it more difficult to build new power plants.

Overall, the market for power plants is expected to remain strong, but there are some risks that could affect the market. Investors and industry analysts should keep a close eye on the market to see how these risks play out.

Online dating: some safe tips

Dating online can be fun, but it can also be dangerous. Here are some tips to help you stay safe while online dating.

1. Keep your personal details private. Don't give out your address, phone number, or other personal information until you've established a strong connection with someone.

2. Take an identity check. Before meeting someone in person, make sure they are who they say they are. You can do this by looking for their name on social media or by asking for a photo ID.

3. Choose well. Don't rush into a relationship. Take your time to get to know someone and see if you really like them. Don't be fooled by flattery or promises of love.

4. Don't give out money. Be wary of anyone who asks you for money, even if they say it's for a gift or a favor. This is a common scam used by online daters.

5. Meet up safely. If you decide to meet someone in person, do it in a public place and let a friend know where you are. Don't drink too much alcohol.

6. Take a friend along. If you're going to a date, bring a friend with you. This can help you feel more comfortable and safe.

7. Don't trust too soon. It's easy to get caught up in the excitement of online dating, but don't trust someone too quickly. Take your time to get to know them.

8. Don't reveal the whole story. Don't tell someone everything about your life, especially if you're still getting to know them.

9. Don't trust too soon. It's easy to get caught up in the excitement of online dating, but don't trust someone too quickly. Take your time to get to know them.
